CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT

November 7, 2011

To whom this may concern:

This letter is written to acknowledge recent construction services performed at Ramapo College of New Jersey by Slate Construction, LLC of Pequannock, N.J. Slate Construction is a General Contractor who has recently performed construction work on the Ramapo College Campus. Their professionalism, problem solving capabilities and attention to detail have helped the College complete projects on time, within budget while maintaining the approval of our client.

In summary, we hope that this letter will provide firms the opportunity to consider Slate Construction, LLC for its current and future construction needs.

Sincerely,

Thomas M. McCann
Project Manager
